

About the Authors :

Dr. Alankar Shrivastav is an academican and researcher in Pharmaceutical Sciences with expertise in pharmacology and drug research. He holds a B. Pharm degree from Siddhartha Institute of Pharmacy, Dehradun, and an M. Pharm in Pharmacology as well as a PhD in Pharmacy from IFTM University, Moradabad. With more than eight years of teaching and research experience, he has supervised postgraduate and doctoral students and currently serves as an Associate Professor in the Pharmacy Academy, Faculty of Pharmacy at IFTM University. Dr. Shrivastav has published 37 research and review articles in national and international journals and has authored over 15 academic books. His innovative contributions include 10 Indian patents and one granted design patent. His academic excellence has been recognized with several awards, including Gold Medals in D. Pharm and M. Pharm, the Young Scientist Award, Research Excellence Award, and Certificate of Excellence. Beyond research and teaching, he is actively involved in institutional activities and currently serves as Alumni Association Coordinator and Culture Committee Member at IFTM University.

Dr. Gyanendra Kumar Sharma is a distinguished academic and researcher in the field of Pharmacy. He earned his B. Pharm. degree from M. J. P. Rohilkhand University, Bareilly, followed by M. Pharm. from J.S.S. College of Pharmacy, Ooty and PhD from Uttar Pradesh Technical University, Lucknow. With over 20 years of experience, Dr. Sharma has authored more than 40 research and review articles published in prestigious national and international journals. He has actively participated in several renowned conferences, seminars and workshops and has supervised M. Pharm. and Ph.D. dissertations. Currently, Prof. Sharma serves as the Dean at the Sharda School of Pharmacy, Sharda University Agra, Agra (UP). He is also the Joint Secretary Indian Pharmacy Graduate Association (IPGA) in Uttar Pradesh and holds a position as a member of the Board of Studies at various universities. His dedication to both education and research has made him a respected figure in the academic community.

Ms. Anupriya Choudhary is an Assistant Professor in Pharmacology at Krishna Institute, Bijnor, with a strong academic background in pharmaceutical sciences. She completed her Bachelor of Pharmacy with Honours from Vivek College of Technical Education, affiliated to AKTU, securing a CGPA of 8.98, followed by an M. Pharm in Pharmacology with Honours, achieving a CGPA of 8.53. She possesses hands-on experience in pharmaceutical quality control techniques, including hardness, friability, disintegration, and dissolution testing, along with proficiency in basic computer applications. Currently, she is engaged in teaching and academic activities, aiming to contribute effectively to pharmacy education and research while continuously enhancing her professional expertise.

Dr. Anjali Bhardwaj is a distinguished Professor at Shri Venkateswara University, Gajraula, Uttar Pradesh, with over 12 years of experience in pharmaceutical education. Her academic prowess is reflected in her exceptional mentorship - she has successfully supervised 7 M. Pharm students, nurturing the next generation of pharmaceutical professionals. She is currently guiding 5 PhD scholars, pushing the boundaries of research in the field. Dr. Bhardwaj's scholarly contributions are noteworthy, with 24 research and review papers published in reputed journals, alongside authorship of several impactful books and book chapters. She remains an active participant in the academic community, regularly engaging in national and international conferences and workshops, fostering knowledge exchange and collaborations. Through her unwavering dedication to teaching, cutting-edge research, and academic leadership, Dr. Bhardwaj has solidified her standing as a prominent and influential figure in the pharmaceutical sciences community. Her multifaceted contributions not only advance pharmaceutical education but also inspire students and peers alike, reflecting her commitment to excellence in academia and research. Her impactful work continues to shape the landscape of pharmaceutical sciences.

Ms. Kanishka Chauhan is currently serving her duties at Krishna Institute, Bijnor, U.P., as Assistant Professor. She has completed her B. Pharm from Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam Technical University, Lucknow and M. Pharm (Pharmaceutical Chemistry) from the Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Central University of Rajasthan, Ajmer. There are numerous publications in various National and International journals to her credit and participated in various National and International conferences. She has over 5 years of experience in the field of Academics.

ACADEMIC

A Text Book of Instrumental Methods of Analysis

Dr. Alankar Shrivastav | Dr. Gyanendra Kumar Sharma
Ms. Anupriya Choudhary | Dr. Anjali Chaudhary
Ms. Kanishka Chauhan