7	Few alumni shared their dissatisfaction from the seminars and workshops organized by the department.	The HoD reviewed the faculty / resource persons (internal and external who delivered lectures in 2020-21) and their content for its acceptance, effectiveness and suitability. Many external domain / subject experts were invited by the department.
8	Some of the alumni shared their dissatisfaction from the guest lectures organized by the department.
9	A considerable number of alumni revealed their discontent with the Special Training Classes organized by the university for bridging Industry-Academia gap.
10	Not all the alumni feel that the University has been successful in educating students for graduate and postgraduate programs and to help them succeed in their chosen/ related fields.	The Department evaluated the curriculum for any redundancy in the syllabus and update on the laws / rules and Acts.
11	Some students opined that the University has not been successful in providing students with sound knowledge in their chosen area
12	Some students disagreed that the University has been successful in creating a professionally superior and ethically strong global manpower and to uphold moral values, with effective communication skills, teamwork skills, multidisciplinary approach, and an ability to improve the quality of life.	PSD trainers conducted special classes to help students orient towards their job responsibilities. Special classes to improve communication were done for the final year students in the session 2020-21 and 2021-22. The same is continued for the session 2022-23.
